

COACH-TED

The Wayne Goldsmith, Swimming Specific Coach Education and Mentoring Programme Developed for NEW ZEALAND Swimming Coaches.

Starting in October 2023 and continuing through to 2025.

Swimming New Zealand would like to invite you to apply become part of an exciting new swimming coach learning experience.

We are proud to announce a world class learning and professional development experience available exclusively for New Zealand Swimming coaches COACH-TED (pronounced COACHED) – Coach Training, Education and Development. Designed by globally respected swimming coach educator Wayne Goldsmith, this programme offers NZ Swimming coaches a unique opportunity to experience a tailor made, individualised learning and professional development environment.

Coaches receive five forms of learning over the programme:

1. In person learning and development at 2 camps / clinics in 2024.
2. Follow up in person learning and development in your home programmes - which can be twice per year home programme visits (optional) or one-on-one mentoring sessions with Wayne monthly over the year - 10 mentoring sessions in total per coach which you can schedule at times & dates which suit you.
3. Video based and online learning opportunities from webinars, seminars, workshops.
4. Group learning - sharing ideas, collaborative learning activities.
5. Articles, chats, discussions shared through a private Facebook group.

What makes the COACH-TED programme special is it's focused on your learning, your programme, and your professional development objectives.

"I am excited to be working with the swimming coaches of NZ", said Goldsmith. "I've been to NZ many times – about 50 visits over the past 30 years and I always love being here. However – I am looking forward to the COACH-TED programme with more enthusiasm and energy than anything I've done previously in New Zealand".

Goldsmith said, "What makes this programme special is it's all about coaches and coaching. It's a targeted, individualised, personalised learning and development experience designed to help every coach involved realise their coaching and performance potential".
